Learning Objective: to plan and write a story in response to a picture

The wind rushed through her hair as she descended the mountain at great speed. Lucy clung tightly to the package with one hand and held onto the Y-shaped runner with the other. Although she was frightened, she was completely focussed on what she had to do next...

- Where has the girl been?
- What does she have in her bag?
- Where is she going?
- What happens next? Write down your ideas below.
