

Year 6 number pyramids: adding fractions

Each pair of adjacent fractions needs to be added to make the one on top. The fractions all have different denominators, so you will need to use your knowledge of multiples to work out how to add them.

Answers:

