

Kenyan Tales – Bringing the Rain to Kapiti Plain

Literacy 1

This is an African tale of how Ki-pat, the herd boy, ended a dreadful drought, which threatened the Kapiti Plain

Read/listen to the book https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tazTYX\_OrYA and answer the questions below in full sentences using your neatest handwriting.

1. Why did all the big wild creatures have to migrate (move) away from Kapiti Plain?
2. Who is Ki-pat and what is his job? Why is he worried?
3. Which bird does the author say Ki-pat looks like and why?
4. How did Ki-pat use the eagle's feather to change the weather?
5. At the end, it says, "the grass grew green" – what is the name for the technique where the same sound is used several times in a row?
6. What do you notice about the way that the book is written? (Hint: repetition and rhyme?)
7. Finally, can you use the book to create your own colourful picture of Ki-pat looking after the animals on Kapiti Plain?
