

What's under a monster's bed?

Many people believe that monsters like to hide under children's beds. Well, that's just not true! However, we do have interesting things under our beds. Ever wondered what you'd find? Take a look below or listen to the poem being read here:

<https://soundcloud.com/talkforwriting/monsters-bed/s-wXMblg7PxG0>

What's Under a Monster's Bed?

Under a monster's bed, you'll find ...

Rugged rocks from an ancient volcano,
The sound of a thousand beating blackbird wings,
The smell of freshly baked cinnamon pie,
The fastest cowboy,
The slowest rain,
A coat made of handshakes and a hat made of smiles,
500 runaway meerkats,
Two frozen, crystal teardrops,
A bag full of crazy ideas,
A broken sunrise,
A forgotten story.

©Maria Richards 2021

Write your poem

Use this planner to help you sort your ideas for your poem. And remember, poems don't have to rhyme – mine didn't.

Underlying structure	New poem ideas
An unusual item that you would find somewhere interesting Use the pattern: ... from a ... e.g., Feathers from a flamingo
The sound of something
The smell of something
The fastest something
The slowest something
Two pieces of unusual clothing
A large number of something e.g., 1000 frog eyes
A small number of something e.g., Three dust mites
A measurement of something e.g., A spoonful of words
Something broken
Something forgotten
Any other ideas you want to add:

Let's publish!

Once you have checked your poem, publish it below:

