

Hello Year 6!

Your RE this week will complete our mini Maundy Thursday topic and follow up on your exploration of the Maundy Thursday 'new commandment'.

I would like you to create a piece of artwork that portrays the concept of the 'new commandment' in some way.

It should be designed to inspire Christians to serve or show an event from Jesus' life that demonstrates the new commandment in action.

A reminder of the 'new commandment':

"I give you a new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

Your artwork can take any form, from sculpture to collage, paint, coloured pencil or pastel. It must be inspirational to Christians, maybe something that could be displayed in one of our village churches. You can use the wording of the new commandment in your artwork. Think about or research the stories of Jesus serving his people - it might help you to look up one of these and use it as a starting point for your artwork.

Be really creative! Good luck and we will start a new unit when we get back to school next week - I can't wait to see you all again.

Mrs Creswell 😊
